

Aglianico del Vulture 2009

Color: deep red, almost purple with light shades given to garnet;

Bouquet: intense and persistent perfume, rich in the typical balsamic mark of the Terroir combined with hints of marmalade and ripe fruit;

Taste: full, velvety proportioned by soft tannins, well-developed: there are recognizable hints of vanilla, mint, cinnamon; excellent for meditation or as an accompaniment to all types of meat, on medium and long aging cheese.
